

THE DENVER POST
Friday, June 2, 1967 31

CPYRGHT

BETH SORENSON
"Woman of the Year."

Miss Sorenson Thursday night at a chapter dinner meeting.

The award is presented annually by each ABWA chapter to one of its members. It is based primarily on the member's progress in her chosen business field. Her other interests, such as community, educational and character - building activities are considered.

Miss Sorenson is a candidate for the national title, "American Business Woman of the Year." The winner will be announced at the ABWA convention Oct. 20-22 in Las Vegas, Nev. The organization has more than 670 chapters.

CPYRGHT

1967 Choice

Miss Beth Sorenson, administrative assistant in the Denver office of the Central Intelligence Agency, has been named "Woman of the Year" by the Denver Chapter, American Business Women's Association. (ABWA).

The title was conferred on